Check-in methods in the ports

Self-service kiosk

PUTTGARDEN-RØDBY v.v.:

Self-Service check-in for busses

Faster check-in for busses with the Scandlines self-service lane.

In Puttgarden (Germany) and Rødby (Denmark) Scandlines offers the option for busses to check in without having to enter the check-in building. Easy and automatic via the self-service lane.

The most efficient process is achieved when the correct bus license plate is already stored in the pre-booking. The cameras in the self-service lane automatically recognizes the license plate and initiates the check-in process. Alternatively, the driver can scan the QR code on the booking confirmation at the self-service kiosk or manually enter the booking number.

We have collected all Q&A's related to Scandlines automated ferry check-in here: bus.scandlines.com

PUTTGARDEN-RØDBY | ROSTOCK-GEDSER v.v.:

Check-in at the staffed buildings

It is possible to use the self-service lane, but we of course also offer staffed check-in on the Puttgarden-Rødby route as well as on the Rostock-Gedser route. There is no automated check-in on the Rostock-Gedser route.

Here you can read how to check in at our staffed check-in buildings: bus.scandlines.com
